Come

near me Mother dar-ling, let me feel thy kiss once more, For I cannot see the sun-shine, Nor the white sails on the shore. And I'm sad and weary,

Mother, And the darkness feels like pain, Since I wa-kened from a happy dream I'll ne-ver dream a-gain

Me thought 'twas long a-go once more, and Jammie back from sea, And sitting by me on the green, Just where we used to be. The same brave look was in his eyes, The look I lov'd of yore, As he smiled up in my face and said, "My lass, we'll part no more? 'Twas mar- ket time and all the lads and lasses look'd so gay, And said they'd come with garlands bright, To hail our wedding day. And the sun shone out so bright-ly, And the birds sang far and wide, But I thought not what the world was like, with Jam-mie at my side. But oh 'twas all a dream, for I woke up with a start, And
