Music by VAN & SCHENCK

Arr. by Jean Walz

Moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line. The tempo is marked 'Moderato' and the dynamics start with a forte (f) marking.

The piano accompaniment for the first verse is shown on two staves. It includes a 'VAMP' section with dynamic markings of fz, mp, and p. The music features complex chordal textures and rhythmic patterns.

Since the coun-try's turned pro-hi-bit-ion,
When the can-nons stopp'd their thund-ring

I've been in a bad con-dit-ion Ev-ry soft drink that I try just makes me want to cry — Take it back from ev-ry bo-dy start-ed wond-ring How the treaty would be signed that was on our mind — Wil-son soon for-whence it came all your drinks are much the same, I tried one here to - day and be-lieve me when I say;

got his "Wil son," Haig for-got his "Haig and Haig," Foch said "No more Rhine-wine," lis-ten boys, be-fore we sign.

CHORUS

For a drink that's fine with out a "kick" oh! "Green Riv-er," — It's the on-ly drink that does the trick, just "Green Riv-er" — Has oth-ers beat a mile, — makes drink-ing worth while And if you want to wear a lit-tle smile try "Green

Riv-er," — If your girl gives you the sack try "Green Riv-er" You will sure-ly win her back, it's grand, — now un-der-stand — That rich-man, poor-man, beg-gar-man, thief, doc-tor, law-yer,

In-di-an chief, Once they drink it they all think it the best drink in the land. For a land
