

200

HIP! HIP! FOR CANADA

Patriotic
Marching Song
One Step,
Trot.

Words and Music by
FREDERICK L. PLANT

Introduced by
MARLEY R. SHERRIS (Baritone)
AND
CHARLES E. BODLEY (Orchestra)

Empire Music & Travel Club, Limited
26 College Street,
Toronto.

HIP! HIP! HIP! FOR CANADA

Introduction.
March Rythm

FREDERICK L. PLANT.

Repeat Octave Higher.

In an old Can - a - di - an town,
Lad - die kept that with - er - ing leaf

A sweet maid with eyes of brown Stood be - neath a spread - ing ma - ple
Where it could not come to grief, Brought it with him when he came back

With her sol - dier lad - die; As two leaves came flut - ter - ing down
From the field of glo - ry; In that old Can - a - di - an town,

Copyright Canada 1915 by Empire Music & Travel Club, Limited.
British Copyright Secured.
U. S. Copyright 1915 by Empire Music & Travel Club, Limited.

rit. - - - rit.

One she pinned up - on her gown, Placed the oth - er
 To that maid with eyes of brown, By that spread - ing

rit. - - - rit.

in his cap And smiled at him so sad - ly; Then it's ma - ple tree He told life's sweet - est sto - ry;

CHORUS

Hip! Hip! Hip! for Can - a - da ——— And the girl wait - ing there for me, ——— Oh! it's Hip! Hip! Hip! for Can - a - da ——— And the lad-dies a - cross the sea; When the fight-ing is done, And the bat-tle is won It's the ma - ple leaf for me Then I'll claim my own in Can - a - da By that spread-ing ma - ple tree. Then it's tree.

DRIFTING

Words & Music by
A. LEON HATZAN.

REFRAIN
Tempo di valse lente

Drift - ing, Drift - ing drift - ing far a - way
3. drift - ing to the Bay

p con express

Drift - ing from home Where peace and safe - ty lay
Near - er to home Where peace and safe - ty lay

Will she catch the flow - ing tide And re - turn to joy and pride, Shall
She has caught the flow - ing tide She'll re - turn with joy and pride,

I e'er more stand by her side Or be lost to her for aye? Da Capo
Soon shall I stand by her side And she'll be mine for Symphony

1st & 2nd times