

Glendon Fridge Festival 2009

Now in its 23rd year, the annual Glendon Fridge Festival continues to showcase the artistic and technical talents of Glendon's theatrical student body.

This year's featured shows:

GROUP 1: Ins and Outs KugelMenschen Piecemeal English Made Simple Show times: Wednesday, May 20th, 8pm Friday, May 22nd, 8pm Saturday, May 23rd, 3pm	GROUP 2: Hear No Evil, See No Evil, Speak No Evil Sacreligious In Words Alone Snow White and the Four Faces Show times: Thursday, May 21st, 8pm Friday, May 22nd, 3pm Saturday, May 23rd, 8pm
---	---

GROUP 1:

Ins and Outs

Ins and Outs tells the story of the female journey through first love. Told through a series of monologues and flashbacks, the play meditates on the presence of the past and how important a role the past plays in who we become in the future.

KugelMenschen

KugelMenschen tells the story of two individuals who have long forgotten what it means to be faithful to oneself. Marked by disappointment and abandonment, one became a pretentious cynic who wants to be taken seriously, while the other escaped society's fangs physically by leaving her hometown to find a place where she belongs, to find home. KugelMenschen is a comedy discussing subjects such as superficiality, brutalization, escapism, and the struggle for love.

Piecemeal

Set in a restaurant, 'Piecemeal' glances into the lives of a couple with a singular past, a family coming apart at the seams, and a lone, waiting man, over the course of a meal that they are never given by a waiter who knows little about what he's doing. Bit by bit, the lives and feelings of the diners unravel, forming a makeshift image of an incomplete puzzle.

"Today's restaurant is theater on a grand scale."

~ Marian Burros

English Made Simple

English Made Simple is a romantic comedy about two people who meet at a party and discover all the possible twists and turns their future relationship could take. “The first three minutes of conversation with someone can determine your relationship for all of eternity”. Is Jack and Jill prepared to play the relationship game despite all the possible risks? Take a journey with two people who long to find an intoxicating and exhilarating kind of love. Discover hilarious constructs of conversation between two people on a balancing act between truth and performance.

GROUP 2:

Hear No Evil, See No Evil, Speak No Evil

Love, Video Games, and Movies. Three things that, more often than not, have affected our lives. With its sitcom style comedy, we see real life...or something like it.

Sacreligious

In a church, two young women have an increasingly strange conversation. As the innocent conversation gains distasteful intensity, it also grows more random and odd.

In Words Alone

Waiting by a hospital bed, Canada's Poet Laureate reflects on his whirlwind notoriety, the fragility of human relationships and how life takes you to places you didn't expect.

Snow White and the Four Faces

Lose the step-mother, the jealousy, the mirror and what do you get? An unconventional re-telling of the classic tale, Snow White and the Four Faces follows Snow White at her job: taking care of Dwarf, an out of work miner with a strange secret.