YOUR MOTHER WAITS FOR YOU

WORDS BY

MILDRED L. CALDON

MUSIC BY

GEO. D. BRASSEUR

PUBLISHED BY
GEO. D. BRASSEUR
BRADFORD, MASS.

"YOUR MOTHER WAITS FOR YOU."

Words by
MILDRED L. CALDON

Music by
GEO. D. BRASSEUR

The sun was slow - ly sink - ing ___
And as she sits there watch - ing ___

___ Far in the gold - en west A
___ For one to her so dear Her

Copyright, 1911, by Geo.D.Brasseur

gray haired moth - er wait - ed _____ For one she loved boy ap - pears be - fore her _____ A voice rings true and best _____ At the out break of war He clear _____ Moth-er mine I've come home I had bad a sad good - bye And as he left his know you have watched each day And as she clasped him

moth - er He heard her gent - ly sigh _____ close - ly A - gain he heard her say _____

CHORUS

Dont for - get your moth - er Where ev- er you may roam ———

Dont for - get she waits for you De - ser - ted and a - lone ———

Dont for - get the old home No mat - ter what you do Remem - ber Jack when you come back Your moth - er waits for you. ———

J Worley Co Boston Mass.