The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

Down in Co - lon Town where a beau - ti - ful gar - den per - fumes,
Cit - y lights are bright, and to - night dear I'm drink - ing to you,

The first vocal line is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The music is in 2/4 time and features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes.

There's my rose of June, the sweet - est flow'r that blooms.      Soon I'll take a ship for the Wine brings thoughts of love, I prom - ise to be true.      Soon the day will break and the

The second vocal line continues the melody, with the piano accompaniment providing harmonic support. The lyrics are positioned below the vocal staff.
