You Stole My Gal.

By BRANEN & LANGE.

Moderato.

The piano introduction consists of three measures. The first measure is a whole rest. The second measure features a piano accompaniment with a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, marked with a forte (ff) dynamic. The third measure continues the accompaniment with a melodic phrase in the right hand.

The piano accompaniment for the first part of the song spans two measures. The first measure is a whole rest. The second measure features a piano accompaniment with a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The phrase "Till ready" is written above the right-hand staff.

(Slowly)

The vocal line and piano accompaniment for the lyrics are shown in two systems. The first system contains the vocal line with the lyrics: "Good-bye Bill, here's my hand, Goin' to leave you un-der-stand, You re-call, 'deed you do, When one night I said to you,---". The second system shows the piano accompaniment for the lyrics, marked with a piano (p) dynamic.

STAGELAND

A Unique ide skillfully handled. An inspiration to the student world which should arouse the attention of the Universities because of the delicate reference to English Literature with William Shakespeare, who called the world a "stage", a central figure.
