ORUS:

Just a-cross the bridge of years dear, Hand in hand we drift a'long;

While love's star keeps bright by burn - ing And it seems life's all a song. —

Should you go a-way and leave me Then this thought my heart it cheers.

Behold in white I know you'll wait me, Just a-cross the bridge of years.

* This Melody line may be used as 2^d Violin or Mandolin part.

Chorus (Waltz moderato.)

When the sun-beams kiss the roses, — When the cat-tle graze again. — When the win - ter days are over, — When the fields are green with grain, — Should the dear old love still linger, — in the June - time we will wed, — Let not your heart be troubled, That's what the mill - wheel said. — When the said.
