Why should we yet our sail unfurl,
There is not a breath the Blue wave to curl;
But when the wind blows off the shore,
Oh! sweetly we'll rest our weary oar;
Blow, breezes blow, the stream runs fast,
The rapids are near, and the day light's past.

3

Otawa's tide, this trembling Moon,
Shall see us float over the surges soon;
Saint of this green Isle! hear our prayers,
Oh! grant us cool Heaven's, and favoring airs.
Blow, breezes blow, the stream runs fast,
The rapids are near, and the day light's past.

There is not a breath the Blue wave to curl;
But when the wind blows off the shore,
Oh! sweetly we'll rest our weary oar;
Blow breezes blow, the stream runs fast,
The rapids are near, and the day lights past.
