Broken Down Piano

(Extra Chorus)

All its keys are chipped and broken,
But its tones are soft and true
And a haunting sweetness fills the air.
We join hands and sing the old songs,
Not a single care have we,
Round the broken down piano in the square.
Across the street a swing band
Serenades the mob;
They're a noisy lot who like it hot,
Not something off the cob.
Ah, but over here we're happy
With its tinkle in our ears,
While our broken down piano
Takes us back thru all the years.
