The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a series of chords and arpeggiated figures, including a triplet of eighth notes in the third measure. The left hand provides a steady bass line with quarter notes and rests.

This system continues the piano accompaniment. The right hand has a melodic line with some grace notes and slurs. The left hand continues with a rhythmic bass line, featuring a triplet of eighth notes in the second measure.

VOICE

The vocal line is written on a single staff. The melody is simple and follows the lyrics. The lyrics are: "It was by chance I re - mem - ber, / Days seem like years dear with - out you,". The line ends with a fermata over the final note.

This system continues the piano accompaniment for the second vocal line. The right hand has a melodic line with slurs and ties. The left hand continues with a rhythmic bass line, featuring a triplet of eighth notes in the second measure.

We met and just for a time,
