JUST BEFORE THEY GATHER THE HAY

5

MUSIC BY JACK STANLEY

WORDS
by
C.O.HODGES

THE H. KIRKUS DUGDALE CO. INC.
14th and You Streets,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Just Before They Gather The Hay

Words by
C. O. HODGES

Music by JACK STANLEY

Valse

Copyright 1912 by C. O. Hodges.

spend an hour or so As they drive a - cross the re - al - ize this is love? She talks to him ver - y al - ways be my dear Then sweet strains of love - ly mead - ow Where the bunch-es are all made new, He looks in - gent - ly In lov - ing words of cheer - ful praise And asks if mus - ic In the pa - vil - ion now are heard, They drive a - to, her love - ly eyes, And won-ders what she'd like to do.

he'll be faith - ful In all the fu - ture days.
cross the mead - ow With all the fleet - ness of a bird.

CHORUS

The new made hay all in bunch - es, Sweat - ing all the night long,

Throw - ing out its frag-rance, mak-ing the tit - le of my song.

Just be-fore they gath-er the hay And the bunches are cov-ered with dew,

Do not for - get your prom-ise, And the part-ing kiss I gave to you.

Try this on your Piano

Will You Always Love Me, Darling?

Words by
Mrs. GEORGE J. REEVES

Music by
M. C. HANFORD

Andante espress.

Copyright 1912 by Mrs. George J. Reeves.

16338

Send 15c for a complete copy of this popular number
THE KIRKUS DUGDALE Co. Publishers,
WASHINGTON, D. C.