FORTY YEARS AGO

MARCH BALLAD

BY

TELL TAYLOR AND DAVE NOWLIN

PUBLISHED BY

TELL TAYLOR
MUSIC PUBLISHER
CHICAGO
Forty Years Ago

TELL TAYLOR.
Writer of "When We Were Sweethearts"
"Down by The Old Mill Stream"

Dave Nowlin.

Tempo di Marcia.

My Mary dear, its mighty queer,
How things have changed since you and I
Were wed, Good luck be with you on your way

Copyright, MCMXI, by TELL TAYLOR Chicago, Ill.
British Copyright Secured.
sweethearts gay, one summer day, I saw the love-light in your eye; You promised you, would be as true, As all the stars that shine above,
Sweethearts together dear, any old
No girl was e'er so neat, no girl was

Forty Years Ago...2.
weather dear, Telling our tales of love.

e'er so sweet, I heard the church bells chime.

REFRAIN. (In strict time)

We marched down the aisle together. Forty years ago.

You were sweet as any fairly And I loved you so;

Forty Years Ago.4.8.
All the folks for miles around dear, Had come to town you know, Just to hear our wedding bells Forty years ago.