Valse modéré.

Dreaming all the time,
Dreaming all day long,

Tho' I know she'll not be mine,
Her sweet picture like a song,

Thinking of the parting day, When the sunshine went away. Through the day and through the night, joys I find. Ev'rywhere, her face so fair,

I just long and sigh Yearning for her All ways meets my eye; If I thought that smile so bright, But there's no reply. she'd still care, Once more I would try.

The Girl I Love Won't Love Me - 3 - 2
The girl I love won't love me, Al tho' I don't know why; I love her, stars above her, Will surely testify, I'm always dreaming of her, When twilight shadows fall, Tho the girl I love won't love me, She's the sweetest girl of all. The all.

“MEET ME TO-NIGHT IN DREAMLAND”

By Beth Slater Whitson and Leo Friedman

IMPORTANT FACTS!

The originator of this wonderful song is a girl, a young woman. The little lady is just like a beautiful flower, filled with goodness, and it seems to be her mission on earth to give out good thoughts and happiness to others by her natural talent to write these helpful song poems.

That’s just why she wrote, “MEET ME TO-NIGHT IN DREAMLAND,” which inspired Leo Friedman to write such a haunting melody, thereby giving the poem a most harmonious setting.

Beth Slater Whitson lives in a little world of her own among song birds and flowers on her little farm home, down among the apple trees and the hills of Tennessee, at Goodrich.

Though far away from the busy world of commerce, she is able to market her writings, and is making a very comfortable living from the royalties. Her latest publications are, “LEAF BY LEAF THE ROSES FALL,” “LOVE ME, LET THE WORLD GO BY” and “WON’T YOU TRY TO LOVE ME,” on sale at all Music Department stores.

Another little bit of history of this “MEET ME TO-NIGHT IN DREAMLAND” song, is that it was first introduced to the American public by Miss Reine Davies, who is known as “The New American Beauty,” and by her friend, the “True Blue” Girl, Miss Davies, who introduced the song at the leading New York Vaudeville Theatre, and received countless encores for her artistic work. Miss Vera Berliner, “The Violinist with a Soul,” played the chorus of this song walking down the center aisle, which made it an instantaneous success.

So you see, we have a song that is making history in “The World of Cool Things,” written by a girl, Beth Slater Whitson, and produced on the stage by Reine Davies and Vera Berliner. I consider this of vital interest in this day and age and that’s why I’m printing the facts here. Hoping you will read and tell your friends about it, for no home can be complete today without Beth Slater Whitson’s beautiful songs.

“SOME OF THESE DAYS”

the SENSATIONAL “HIT”

Can you tell what there is about this song that makes it the “talk of the country”? Just at this time it is getting more newspaper “puffs” than any other ten songs. That means it’s a “Hit.” So make it your business to get a copy AT ONCE from local dealer or send 25 cents to the Publisher.
