I must write again and say I can't come home this year. Though I'm far away from you, in thought I'm very near.

I know that mother cares the most and to her I will say, My loving thoughts will revel in their mirth, For you have won the greatest love, which makes you Queen of Earth.

I think of H. 4
I think of home and mother when it's Christmas time. And I know that she'll be waiting when the joybells chime; You will never have another who loves you like your mother, So I think of home and mother when it's Christmas time.

POSTLUDE
