Always Good
I Would Rather Love What I Cannot Have Than Have What I Cannot Love

Copyright MCMXI by JEROME H. REMICK & Co., New York & Detroit.
Copyright, Canada, MCMXI by Jerome H. Remick & Co.
All day I sigh and almost cry, Though there are a lot of fellows
They say he's met another pet, And if I will try that I can right near by; Some declare they love me and soon forget; I tell them I'm contented and ask me for my hand, When I try to tell them, they don't do not care to try, Then if they persist I simply un - der - stand. So I say to them in sweetest tones._

tell them why I shall be an old maid when I die._

I would rather etc. 3
Refrain

I would rather love what I cannot have than have what I cannot love;
I would rather be, just a friend of his, Than any other fellow's turtle dove!
I would rather have him abuse me, Than another call me 'angel from above,' I would rather love what I cannot have Than have what I cannot love. I would love.

I would rather etc. 3
