I'll Go With You To The End Of The World
And Then To The World Beyond

Lyric by RICHARD GOODALL.

Music by
H. SYLVESTER KROUSE.

Moderato.

I could not dwell within this world, dear heart,
I'll gather flow'rs that in your pathway grow,
I'll

out you ever near;
pluck them all for you;
And

magic spell shall ever keep us apart, And naught then will I I'll remove all trace of pain and woe, With their pure morn-ing fear:

dew:
By your dear side, in storm or you may tread, Be with you when you need;

Bright sun-shine, There will I ever be;
