"IF I HAD YOU"

Words by J. E. DEMPSEY

Music by JOS. A. BURKE

Andante Moderato

Flowers would blossom where the green weeds grow,
How much better would each day begin,
If I had you!

I'd be singing all the songs I know,
How much harder would I strive to win,
If I had you!
Life's battles too!
Clouds would vanish and the Things are what we make them,
skies would be so 'tis said! Smiling and blue,
This may be true!
Earth would be Heaven.
Things would be different If I had you!
If I Had You
CHORUS Slowly

If I had you! If I had you!

All for my own, dear, Just mine a lone dear;

With you to kiss me with you to miss me,

Life would be, worth while to me, If I had you.
