Little White Rose Of Mine.

Words by
William F. Kirk.

Valse Moderato.

Music by,
Robert Matthews.

Once in a beautiful Garden,

Two snow haired lovers came strolling,

Just as the dawn turned to day,

Out peeped a little white rosebud,

Fifty long years,

"See the two roses," he whispered,

Watching the butterflies play,

Smiling at her through his tears.

Red Rose was blooming beside her,
"Don't you remember that morning,
Many long proud crimson head,
All of a sudden he summers ago,
When first I met you and spied her.
He kissed her and said;
Told you I worship you so:"
Refrain.
Little white rose, I love you,
Little white rose so
