Andante

Night-time it seems, brings sweet-est dreams, Dreams that are dear to me, All thro' the night, in moonbeams bright, Your pretty face I see; You

Morning awakes all my heart aches, And dreams just fade away, Then th'ots of you, haunt me a new, All thru the live-long day; But are the rose in my garden of love, the fairest still I sigh for the night to return, the moon I flow er too, I long each night for dear moonyearn to see, For each moon beam means some sweet light, For moon light means dreams of you. dream, The dreams that bring you to me.

Chorus

Moonlight, dear moonlight, Makes me dream of

Moonlight Makes 3
you, Dream-ing, schem-ing, Wonder-ing what to do, While in their nest, birds are sleep-ing,

And from above stars are peep-ing, Then moon-light seems to bring sweet dreams, Dreams that I hope come true, true.
