LOVE ME HONEY! LOVE ME.

Words and Music by
ALBERT HOCKEY.

When the month of June comes softly stealing,
Every time I hear the bells a ringing,

'Round my heart there comes a touch of love,
Makes me think it ought to be for me,

AN INDIAN LOVE SONG.

Words by Wm. C. WELZEL, Jr.
Music by Wm. HELD

All'gt' Mod.

Ev'ry night upon an Indian stream,
Soon a cowboy came upon the scene,
While the stars would cast a dreamy gleam,
A red-skin brave was wooing,
Indian Queen,
While all her tribe were dreaming,

A pretty Indian maid,
One night they rode away,
Drift along,
Heart is sore,
Smiling and gazing
Tears in his eyes,
He would sing this serenade.
With his song of yesterday.

His canoe would slowly
Now the lonely Indian's
While he softly sang an Indian song,
He is longing for his redskin squaw,
He turns to the skies,
My sweet Nataoma.

Moderato

Vamp until ready

Sweetheart, feeling kind of blue,
Sweetheart, just received your note,
Wondering if the tale of love you told was true,
My heart is always pining dearie just to have you near,
