Rolling Down To Coney

Tempo di Valse

There's nothing in the winter game, I You take your "cutie" to the sand, You wish they'd cut it out; The summer is the get her in the sea; She screams and holds you only time I care to sing about. For round the neck, It's nice as it can be! You furs and flats and op'ra grand, I do not taxi back and never mind The price you give a smile, Just give me roof shows have to pay, Because it's summer and the tan You get at Coney Isle. and the time That boys were meant to play.

CHORUS
Rolling down to Coney, On a summer day,Beat it to the break-ers, boys, For that's the place to play.
Give the girls a time, boys,

Tight-wads have no show Just put your pet on the hum-an rou-

And let her go! And let her go!
