Sing this to your Sweetheart!

Haven't You Forgotten Something Dearie?

Words by JOE GOODWIN.

Chorus.

Have-n't you for-got-ten some-thing, dear-ie? Think a min-u-te, dear, be-fore you go; You need-n't be in such an aw-ful hur-ry, You're act-ing fast; but you are slow. Must I re-mind you, dear, There is some-thing you should take be-fore you leave me? When you take it, you must leave it here; It's some-thing rhymes with bliss, Some-thing I don't care to miss; Have-n't you for-got-ten some-thing dear? Have-n't dear?

It's Summer-time wake up and stretch yourself;
Slip on your gingham gown and old straw hat;

Take off your frowns, let smiles appear.
Don't wait to put your best clothes on.

Take off those big snow-shoes,
Just mix up with the boys,
They're not the kind to use,
Wake up and make some noise,

Now that the Summer days are here,
Hurry or Summer will be gone.

CHORUS.

Summer days, those good old Summer days,
Time for recreation,
Oh! you big vacation;
Summer days, those happy
