Chorus

Copyright MCMXI, by Will Rossetter

You're all heart of Weber & Fields? You know their reputation for Big Successful Shows—Well, just at this moment the biggest success is a show called "Hanky Panky" playing to packed houses at the Broadway Theatre, New York.

The biggest "hit" of the show is the song, "O-U CIRCUS DAY," and named by "Those Royal Recordings" Magazine and offer one of the greatest comedy teams in the show business. This couple, H. Montgomery and Florence B. Moore, are on the stage over half an hour singing and dancing "O-U CIRCUS DAY," they make as many verses that they can and have to cut off absolute exhaustion, and now and then you hear "O-U CIRCUS DAY!" again and again and again. It's a wonderful song. "O-U CIRCUS DAY!" is the catch word of the audience and everyone is singing "O-U CIRCUS DAY!" The smiles are shining and there seems to be Some in Vanderbell, the biggest being known as the "Queen of Song"—Maud Lambert—who right now is the happy possessor of over $50,000 in the show. She's a headliner attraction in Vanderbell. The big song of the year, "O-U CIRCUS DAY!"" is said to be the "giving song." "O-U CIRCUS DAY!" will out sell "ALEXANDER'S BAND," and be the "giving song." Valse moderato

Just as the title suggests—this is a very interesting little song. The lyric tells a good little story from life, and the music is by your favorite writer, W. R. Williams, whose melodies are sung and hummed by the millions. We print just a "tiny hit" from the chorus, but if you haven't a copy, this song has not been on the market very long—just a month or two. It is considered one of the "best" sellers on the market. "Best Selling" means it's what the public want—it's not trash—but a toned-down and made song that makes us feel good—and even better every time we play and sing it. That's the kind of song we all like, and that's the kind of song that lives forever. If your local dealer can't supply you, send 50 cents in stamps to Will Rossetter, 156 W. Lake St., Chicago, and receive a copy by return mail.
