When You Hear Love's "Hello!"

Lyric by HAROLD ATTERIDGE.

Moderato.

Music by
E. RAY GOETZ and LOUIS A. HIRSCH.

Oh, hello, there, dear, I'm on the phone, Please come Are you on the phone yet, listen dear, Some one's up, I'm lonesome hear alone; What's the matter, central, on the line who's trying to hear, And I know they're listen'ing

I can't hear! Are you back again? well listen dear; Oh, helall the while, I suppose they think it's time to smile; I don't

Lo! say, what was that I heard? Central, please, I cannot care if all the world would know; What's the difference, for I hear a word; They are off again, what's absurd, Hel-lo, dear, I'm saying, it's you I adore.

She.

Yes, dear, come up, I'll be home here all right; I feel the same, only my love is more.
I want to tell you you're the one, The only one of all; The only number in my book, The one who gets first call. There'll be a ring some day for you, The meaning you will know, So don't hang your receiver up, When you hear love's "hello!" I lo!

Music by LOUISE TEASDALE.

CHORUS. With much expression.

Killarney, Killarney, the place that I love, With its lakes clear and blue as the bright sky above. Where we told love's sweet story and vowed to be true; I am

With expression

All the world is bright and fair, skies are wondrous clear.

Flow'rs have brightest gowns to wear, all for you, my dear.
E'en the roses

on your breast, kiss'd by dew drops clear, seem to love the kisses best.

From your lips, my dear.
