DAN'S
RAG-TIME
IN DE
MOON

WORDS BY MAURICE SHAPIRO
MUSIC BY SEYMOUR FURTH

SUNDAY WORLD
MUSIC ALBUM
SUPPLEMENT TO THE
NEW YORK WORLD
SUNDAY, JULY 13TH
1900.

COPYRIGHT, MDCCCCXCVIII, BY F.A. MILLS.
Dar's Rag Time In The Moon.

Words by Maurice Shapiro.

Moderato.

Music by Seymour Furth.

Piano.

VOICE.

1. Another Coon-town notion Has caused a great com-
2. The Parsons congregation They're taking a va-mo- tion.
ca- tion.
All Black-villes out each evening the ex-
The town is rag time crazy and the Copyright, 1898 by F. A. Mills, 45 W. 29th St. New York.

English Copyright Secured.
Citations running high
Some coon of synchrony
Fact you can't deny
Some say it's their in.

Patience has raised this new sensation
Each night you'll hear him
tentation to make a grand ascension
Up in a big balloon

Shouting out
As he points up to the sky
Loon some night
When they hear that Darky cry

Chorus.
Look there don't blunder blunder blunder for there's rag time in the moon—— Just hear that thunder thunder thunder they are striking up a tune—— And all coons just ponder ponder ponder take your hats off gaze yonder yonder yonder. Dere's a black man a playing rag time in the moon. Why don't you moon——