Way down in Tennessee
Some day I hope to go

hap- py as he can be back there to Dust- ty Snow,

There lives a lazy coon, White folks they call him "Joe;"
Then Dusty's bride I'll be, We'll live on kidney stew,

but he says, that ain't so, "Dusty's" his name!
pork-chops an' possum, too, an' buck-wheat cakes!

An' when the moonlight shines down on the melon vines,
An' every summer night under the pale moonlight,

Then Mister Dusty Snow, he get that old banjo Hear him
Then Mister Dusty Snow, he'll get that old banjo Hear him.

spoken ad lib.

Dusty Rag 4
tune up! an' start to play.

REFRAIN

p-f Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle
Hear that tune 2nd time an octave higher ad lib.

p-f small notes 2d time only

Stars begin to twinkle to the moon,

When I hear that magic harmony

Dusty Rag 4
Angels seem to whisper love to me
I just want to love him, hold him tight!

I could keep on dancing all the night, Sets my heart a thumpin'

Playin' tag, Oh! it's the Dusty Rag. Rag.

DUSTY RAG is also published as instrumental for Piano.

CHORUS.

Honey, I'm saving my money
Just to marry you

Honey, Because I do love you, so true, Life isn't all I was
