Child-ren come hi-ther, we're all mer-ry-mak-ing, Gifts from St. Nich-o-las here for the tak-ing, Oh, what a wel-come has he, Oh, what a wel-come has he! Oh, it's good to be gay on St. Nich-o-las day, So the folks say, merry and gay, To sing at your work and to laugh at your play, On St. Nicholas day in the morning.

Saint Nicholas comes with his fingers tingle, (Heigh-ho! the sleet and the snow) Hark to the sleigh-bells, how lightly they jingle, over the road from the sea.

He is the traveller who never grows weary, he is the friend who is always so cheery, Oh! what a welcome has
