Dream Boat

By MILDRED WHITE WALLACE

Here are a few Strains of the Chorus

CHORUS Dreamily

Come sail away in my dream boat, Far from the world we must go,

Tenderly my arms will hold you, While whispers come soft and low,

Love light from your dear eyes gleam.

Get it from your dealer. Also can be had on Rolls & Records.

To A Friend

Since we are here for such a little while,
   And time is fleeting and the years are few,
Is there not some little tender thing,
   That I can do for you?

Something to repay in some slight part,
   For all that you have been and are to me,
Something that will show how much I prize,
   Your trust and loyalty.

For we are here for such a little while,
   And time is fleeting and the years so few,
I wish there were some little tender thing,
   That I could do for you.

Tenderly

Since

we are here for such a little while,
And time is fleeting and the years are few,

Is there not some little tender thing,
That I can do for you, That I can do for you? Something to re-pay in some slight part, For all that you have been and are to me,

To a Friend - J. Low
For we are here for such a little while, and

For I wish there were some little tend-er thing, that I could do for you. That I could do for you.
Chorus  Slowly with expression

Arizona moon while you are shining, For my little wild rose I am pinning, On a bronco pony close beside her, Down the mountain trail I long to guide her,

When All The World Forgets You
THERE'S A MOTHER WAITING STILL

Words by HANNAH GRIFFITH MORGAN
Music by HAROLD DIXON

CHORUS Slowly and dreamily

When all the world forgets you, And you find yourself alone
When all your friends desert you, And you are far from home Remember there is someone who loves and always will.
When all the world forgets you, There's a mother waiting
