me!

So glad you are, so lithe and young,

As joyous as the sea.

The sea that dances in the golden rain,

The falling sunbeams fling,

Ah! stoop and kiss me once again.

Then take your lute... and

colla voce
Ah! stoop and kiss me once a-gain. Then take your lute and sing.

Ah! stoop and kiss me once a-gain. Then take your lute and sing.
The sunset fires desert the West,
The stars invade the sky,
Lover of mine, 'tis time to rest.
And
let the music die;
Tho' melody a-

-wake the morn
Yet Love should end the day:

tenderly.
I kiss your hand the strings have worn
And take your lute acolla voce

-I kiss your hand
the strings have worn And take the lute away.

I kiss your hand the strings have worn And take the lute away.
