TEACH ME TO DO THY WILL.

Lord, God to Thee I pray,
Save me from ev'ry ill,
Show me O Lord the way
That I may do Thy Will.
Here in the valley deep,
There on the highest hill.
On plain or mountain steep
Teach me to do Thy Will.

Thou, Lord at whose commands
Winds hush and waves be still,
Hold Thou my feeble hand,
Teach me to do Thy Will.
When evil beckons me
Spare me, O Lord, until
Lifting my eyes to Thee
I learn to do Thy Will.

Words by
AVERY WERNER.

Music by
VERNON EVILLE.

Andante religioso.

THE BAREFOOT TRAIL
Words by MARIAN PHILPS
Music by ALVIN S. SWIGGERS
Sung by Mr. JOHN MCCORMACK
On the bare-foot trail, goes winding Through the years of memory. The past and the present blending, in a wonder-ful dream for me. And I seem to be back in my childhood days, A lad with a freckled nose. Who is threading the bare-foot wild wood, wave with lassie white like a rose.

MOTHER MY OWN
Words by MIRIAM TEICHNER
Music by EDWARD RICHARDSON CALDWELL
Sung by Mme. GALLI-CURCI
The gold in her heart, the gold of her love, As radiant and pure as angels' rays. The charm of my childhood, she told me voce slight ritard a tempo
Joined in my play, and taught me the games That were laugh-lined and gay. Though sometimes she sighed and was weary, may be, she was

FRIEND O'MINE
Words by FRED. K. WEATHERLY.
Music by WILFRID SANDERSON.
When you are happy, friend o'mine, And all your skies are blue, Tell me your luck, your fortune fine, And let me laugh with you.
Tell me the hopes that spur you on, The deeds you mean to do, The gold you've struck, the fame you've won, And let me
