let the victors in. What rush of alleluia Fills let the victors in. Bring near Thy great salvation, Thou all the earth and sky! What ring-ing of a thousand harps Be-speaks the tri-umph Lamb for sinners slain; Fill up the roll of thine e lect, Then take Thy pow and nigh! O day for which cre a tion And all its tribes were made! O reign! Ap pear, De sire of Na tions! Thine ex ile long for home; Show joy for all its for mer woes A thou sand fold re paid! in the heav'ns Thy prom ised sign, Thou Prince and Sav ior, come!

Oh, then what repur ed greet ings On Ca-naan's hap py shore! What Ten thou-sand times ten thou-sand In spark ling rai-ment bright, The knit ting sev ered friendships up Where part ings are no more! Then eyes with joy shall ar mies of the ran somed saints Throng up the steps of light. 'Tis finished, all is spar kle That br immed with tears of hate, The child no long er fa ther less Nor fin is hed, Their fight with death and sin; Fling o pen wide the gold en gates And wid ows des o late, let the vic tors in.
