The Veteran's Song

(Long Live the King)

The Words by F. E. Weatherly

The Music by Stephen Adams.

Price 60 cents

Boosey & Co.

New York - Toronto - London, (Eng.)

This song may be sung in public without fee or license.
The public performance of any parodied version, however, is strictly prohibited.

Copyright 1902 by Boosey & Co.
OTHER RECENT SUCCESSFUL SONGS
BY EMINENT COMPOSERS

N°1 in B♭ COMRADES OF YESTERDAY N°2 in C N°3 in D
Words by FRED. W. WEATHERBY & STAFF
Music by STEPHEN ADAMS

WHO'S THAT CALLING?
Words by A. CONAN DOYLE.
With patriotic fervour and tenderness.
Music by ALICIA ADELAIDE NEEDHAM.

"WHO CARRIES THE GUN?"
Words by A. CONAN DOYLE.
Music by ALICIA ADELAIDE NEEDHAM.

Boosey & Co.
NEW YORK
9 EAST 17th ST.
TORONTO
RYRIE BLDG., YONGE ST.
LONDON, (ENG.)
295 REGENT ST., W.
THE VETERAN'S SONG.

(LONG LIVE THE KING)

Just wheel my chair to the window,
   And bite the casement fling,
For I want to see the folks, lass,
   As they go to crown the King.
So fetch me the old Martini,
   And set me upon my feet,
For the King, the King is coming,
   Don't you hear 'em in the street?

"Long live the King,"—don't you hear 'em cheering,
   Don't you hear 'em shouting as the troops come by?
"Long live the King,"—that's the song they sing;
   "God bless the King" is the nation's loving cry.

We hasn't no flowers at the window,
   For times is a bit severe,
But I think he'll stop when he sees me,
   As I stand at attention here.
And tho' I've a wooden leg, dear,
   And my eyes are old and dim,
I fought for the Queen, his mother,
   And I'll fight again, for him!

"Long live the King,"—don't you hear 'em cheering,
   Don't you hear 'em shouting as the King comes by?
"Long live the King,"—that's the song they sing;
   "God bless the King" is the nation's loving cry.

Did ye see him, lass, did ye see him,
Did ye see his merry eye,
As I gave the salute, and shouted
   "Present arms!" as the King went by?
Did ye hear him speak to his marshal?
   I heard him through the noise,
"Thank God! when the young lads fall, sir,
   We still have the brave old boys!"

"Long live the King,"—don't you hear 'em cheering,
   Don't you hear 'em shouting as the King goes by!
"Long live the King,"—that's the song they sing,
   "God bless the King" is the nation's loving cry.

F. E. WEATHERLY.
THE VETERAN'S SONG.

(Long live the King.)

Words by
F. E. WEATHERLY.

Music by STEPHEN ADAMS.

Wheel my chair to the window,
And wide the casement fling,
For I want to see the folks, lass,
As they go to greet the King.

Copyright 1902 by Boosey & Co.
fetch me the old Martini, And set me up on my feet,

For the King, the King is... coming, Don't you hear 'em in the... street?

For the King, the King is coming, Don't you hear 'em in the street?

The Veteran's Song.
"Long live the King,"—don't you hear 'em cheering,
Don't you hear 'em shouting as the troops come by?
"Long live the King,"—that's the song they sing;

"God bless the King" is the nation's loving cry.

We

The Veteran's Song.
ha'n't no flow'rs at the window, For times is a bit se-

-vere, But I think he'll stop when he sees me, As I stand at att.en tion here. And tho' I've a wood - en leg, dear, And my eyes are old and dim, I

The Veterans Song.
fought for his dear old father, And I'd fight again, for him!
I fought for his dear old father, And I'd fight again, for him!
"Long live the King!"

don't you hear 'em cheering, Don't you hear 'em shouting as the King comes by?

The Veteran's Song.
"Long live the King;" that's the song they sing, "God bless the King" is the nation's loving cry.

Did ye see him, lass, did ye see him, Did ye see his merry eye,

As I gave the salute, and shouted "Present arms!" as the King went by?

Did ye hear him speak to his marshal? I heard him through all the noise, "Thank God! when the young lads fall, sir, We still have the brave old boys! "Thank

The Veteran's Song.
God! when the young lads fall, sir, We still have the brave old boys!"
"Long live the King,"— don't you hear 'em cheering,
Don't you hear 'em shouting as the King goes by? "Long live the King,"—
that's the song they sing, "God bless the King" is the nation's loving cry.

The Veteran's Song.
OTHER RECENT SUCCESSFUL SONGS
BY EMINENT COMPOSERS

THERE'S A LAND.
Words by CHARLES MACAY and AINES M. SIBLEY.
Music by FRANCIS ALLITSEN.

CANADA EVER!
Words by WILFRID MILLS.
Music by LAURA G. LEMON.

THE DEATHLESS ARMY
Words by F.G. WEATHERLY.
Music by W. THURSTON.

Copyright MCMI by Boosey & Co.

Copyright MCMVII by Boosey & Co.

Boosey & Co.
NEW YORK 9 EAST 17th ST.
TORONTO RYRIE BLDG., YONGE ST.
LONDON, (ENG.) 295 REGENT ST., W.