sun-burst of glory, When the boys come home. The day will seem bright-er When the boys come home, And our hearts will be light-er When the boys come home, Wives and sweet-hearts will press them In their arms and caress them, And pray God to bless them, When the boys come home.
thinn'd ranks will be proud-est, When the boys come home, Their cheer will ring the loud-est, When the boys come home, The full ranks will be shat-ter'd, And the bright arms will be bat-ter'd, And the battle standards tatter'd, When the boys come home. Their bay'-nets may be rusty, When the boys come home, And the uniforms dusty, When the boys come home, But all shall see the traces of battle's royal graces, In the brown and beard-ed fa-ces, When the boys come home.

Broadly but with spirit.

Our love shall go to meet them, When the boys come home. To bless them and to greet them, When the boys come home, And the Words by FRED. G. BOWLES.

Sung by Mr. John McCormack
Music by WILFRID SANDERSON.

O, waiting heart, I can not tell How dark and long the lane!
Only I know that Time will bring Our dear ones back again.
Safe to a home of peace and light, Across the furthest sea.
May God be with our boys to-night, Where'er they may be.
