When You Are Near

Song

The Words By
Herbert J. Brandon

The Music By Jack Thompson

Copyright.

London:
Enoch & Sons,
14 & 14a Great Marlborough Street, W.

By the same Composer:

An Emblem .................................................. B♭ (B♭ 6 in C) E♭ F
A Greeting .................................................. F (C♭ 6 in D) G A♭
I Live for You .............................................. F (D♭ 6 in F) G A♭

Come, Sing to Me ........................................ D (C♭ 6 in D) E♭ F G
Love's Eyes .................................................. F (C♭ 6 in F) G
The Nightingale and the Rose ...................... F (D♭ 6 in F) G
When You Are Near ..................................... E♭ (C♭ 6 in E♭) F G

In the Glad Springtime ................................ D (B♭ 6 in E♭) E♭ F
The Bee and the Flower ............................... C (C♭ 6 in E♭) D E♭
One Happy Day .......................................... E♭ (B♭ 6 in D) F A♭

There's No Girl Like You .............................. G (C♭ 6 in E♭) B♭
You (Three Short Songs) ................................ Two Keys
The Token .................................................. D (B♭ 6 in D) E♭ F

Copyright, MCMX, by Enoch & Sons.

New York:
G. Ricordi & Co.

Toronto:
Anglo-Canadian Music Publ. Ass'n.

Paris:
Enoch & Co.

All rights reserved, including rights of reproduction by mechanical instruments.

Cable: Enoch, London

Printed in England

Price 2½ net

Jack Thompson
WHEN YOU ARE NEAR.

When you are near
   There fall no shades of night,
Love in your eyes
   Makes all creation bright.
Through all the days
   Hope spreads a pathway clear,
All things are bliss
If only you are near.

Refrain;
When you are near,
   Close by my side,
Life is so dear,
   Sweet thoughts abide.
Hearts have no sorrows
   Bright all to-morrows,
When you are near.

When you are near
   And I may hold your hand,
To me it seems
   New glories fill the land;
And all around
   A fairer world I see,
Joy fills my heart
When you are near to me.

Refrain:
When you are near, etc.

Herbert J. Brandon.
WHEN YOU ARE NEAR.

Words by HERBERT J. BRANDON.

Music by JACK THOMPSON.

Andante moderato.

Not too slow. With much expression.

When you are near There fall no shades of night. Love in your eyes Makes all creation bright. Through all the days Hope spreads a pathway clear,

Copyright, MCMXI, by Enoch & Sons.

E. & S. 4132

All rights reserved, including rights of reproduction or performance by mechanical instruments.
All things are bliss, If only you are near.

In strict time. Broadly.

When you are near, Close by my side,

In strict time.
simile

Life is so dear, Sweet thoughts abide.

crescendo

Hearts have no sorrows, Banish'd is fear,

crescendo simile
Bright all to-mor-rows, When you are near!

Andante moderato.

Tempo I.

When you are near And I may hold your hand, To me it seems New glo-ries fill the land; And all a-round A fair-er world I see;

E.S. 4132
Joy fills my heart When you are near to me.

In strict time. Broadly.

When you are near, Close by my side,

Life is so dear,

Sweet thoughts abide.

Hearts have no
THE TOKEN.
Song.

Words by GERTRUDE McDERMAID.
Music by JACK THOMPSON.

To Dolly.

A clear blue sky, the breath of waking flowers,
A crimson rose once gathered in the dew;

Copyright, MCMXI, by Enoch & Sons. E & S 4108