WILD ROSE OF SIERRA-LAND

WORDS BY PORTER BYRON COOLIDGE

MUSIC BY FREDERICK BOOTHROYD

PUBLISHED BY THE AUTHORS
LANDER WYOMING

.60 NET
WILD ROSE OF SIERRA-LAND

WORDS BY PORTER BYRON COOLIDGE
MUSIC BY FREDERICK BOOTHROYD

PUBLISHED BY THE AUTHORS
LANDER WYOMING

.60 NET
Wild Rose Of Sierra Land

Words by PORTER BYRON COOLIDGE

Music by FREDERICK BOOTHROYD

Dedicated to Marguerite Mc Intosh Boice

Allegretto

Smile on, smile on, — blossom trail, Thou wilding song of mountain trail; Lend rosy morn thy simile rall.

checks soft blush, Thy sweet voice lend to twilight's hush rall.

a tempo

Dream on, dream on —

Copyright MCMXXIV by P. B. Coolidge & Frederick Boothroyd, International Copyright Secured Printed in the U. S. A. primrose blossom of the skies; Let wooing clouds of sun bright hair, Adorning kiss thy forehead fair, A-dorning kiss thy

Through starry night and sunny day My heart goes singing on its way, Thy sweet voice ever-calling me, My love the torrent, Thou the sea, my love

Wild Rose Etc. 4
Tempo di Valse

rose of Sierra Land, Upon this king - ly peak I stand, And fling the glo - ry of thy love To worlds be - low and stars a - bove.

Ah

Thy sweet voice ever calling me, My love the torrent

Thou, thou the sea.

Wild Rose Etc. 4

Zimmerman Print
Cincinnati, Ohio