Moderato

One day I saw a gal-lant ship de-part-ing
On the shore each day an anx-i-ous crowd is wait-ing
For

sweet-hearts waved a good-bye from the shore But the mer-ry scene, it bore a tinge of When a mes-sage came it cast a glow of sad-ness

For 'mong the crowd there's one we'll see no more 'Twas the sad-dest sto-ry ev-er tongue could tell crowd there stood a woman lone and lonely wealth but in their joy was mingled sadness For as they gainst her will her boy had taken flight Tempted

One a told how many perished in the fight by the wealth untold to a land that's decked with gold
