IN MY TIPPY CANOE Words and Music by FRED FISHER

Chorus

In my tippy canoe, tippy-canoe Lou, I will tippy-canoe, tippy-canoe you, Where the moon is all a-glow, And the laughing waters flow; In my tippy-canoe,

I'VE BEEN SAVING FOR A RAINY DAY
SONG—FOX-TROT

By ARTHUR SWANSTROM And DOROTHY CLARK

Moderato

Andante Moderato (con espressione)

You never know when skies are bright How soon the storm will rise,
And I just received your letter, dear,
In answer to my song,

From just when ev'ry thing's all right
You get a big surprise,
When what you say it would appear You're loved me all along,

I had you life seemed worth while. The days went flying past, Al-tell me that you're coming home I hope this time you'll stay, But though you're gone I still can smile, I knew it could never last, And if once more you chance to roam, You know I can always say, That

CHORUS

I've been saving for a rainy day, All the sun-shine that you gave me, Just like a miser

I've Been Saving, etc. 3 hoarding his gold,

I heard the memory of the love tales you told,

And

Now, sweet heart that you have gone away,

Now, that all my skies are gray,

I am glad I've got that golden sunshine,

I've been saving for a rainy day.

I found a rose,
in the devil's garden,
Wandering alone,
in the moonlight scene,

In the heart of dear old Italy
There's a little heart that waiting there For the heart of a rose,
in the moonlight scene,
