I Want My Mammy
(Ballad Fox-Trot)

Words by GEO. B. WEHNER

Music by LOUIS BREAUX

Moderato

In the days of the sweet long ago,
In my dreams all the world was a
All the days of my childhood have flown, With the friends that I once called my show,

While the lights of the great white way kept own,

But each night there's a voice that seems to call-ing to me-night and day, Then I kissed my old mam-my good whis-per so close-in my ear, And it tells me with love fond and bye, As her blessing she gave with a sigh, true, I must never be dreary or blue,

Now that angel above hears me say.
Then I dream that my mammy is near.

Refrain

I want my mammy Little wonderful mammy;

Just to rock me to sleep, When the night shadows creep, I see her only, In my dreaming so lonely, Then my cares fade away,

I awake and I say, My loving mammy

If all the wealth of the world were mine.
Mammy, I'd give it all for your love divine, I want my mammy, Little old fashioned mammy-
All the golden years through, I'll be calling for
