Music by
SHEP CAMP

I've a secret, oh, so ev'ry night when no one's sweet, One I'd never dare repeat, So not a word to any one I've near, When there's no body to hear, I whisper to my rose some body's said; name, But it burned within me so That some body had to And my cheek with blushes glows Like the petals of my know, rose, So I told it to a rose bud red!

My secret I've told to a rose,

The rarest and fairest that grows,

For I know it will rest

Nestled close to my breast!

So
take any rose that you choose
only I never can lose;
for the secret I
prize is the secret that lies in the heart of my crimson rose.
My rose.
