What makes you gray—

Till ready

Work and no play,—

All day it's hustle and grind.——

It really seems—only in dreams—

Chorus

Every highway, every byway, Leads us to the land of Jack and Jill, Find your way 'round—to that playground— And you'll find that life still holds a thrill—Look for rest there, blue-birds nest there,

On the top of that story-book hill. Cares are smothered—While you're smothered—In the land of Jack and Jill. Every Jill.
