CHORUS

I love my baby
My baby loves me,

Don't know nobody
As happy as we She's only
She gives me

We're hot-sy tot-sy Why shouldn't we be?

twenty And I'm twenty-one We never worry, We're kisses Each one is a smack But you should hear 'em When

A monkey may look like a man
But still a monkey ain't.
A number six may look like nine When written upside down.

A homely girl may look real cute Behind a coat of paint.
And when a nine looks like a six It's even all around.

Sometimes the one you're trusting Is just the one to doubt.

father was a travelling man That's how I know it's true:
know I'm right, it's my delight To stand right here and shout:

It's hard to tell the depth of a well By the length of the It's hard to tell the depth of a well By the length of the It's hard to tell the taste of the gum By the way that it handle on the pump handle on the pump looks up on your shoe

It's hard to gauge a It's hard no doubt to It's hard to find what's camel's age By the curl of the hair on his hump figure out Why a wise looking guy is just a chump on your mind By the way that you say How do you do

The Pump Song
A girlie who may promise to be true
A Palm Beach friend may write "The water's fine" Some little chaps are mighty smart we know to you May be true to you and who knows who some-time Still he bathes in only beer and wine you'll find it's but oh! Great big saps from little smart-ies grow and so hard to tell the depth of a well By the length of the handle on the pump.
