Reminds Me of You

Compliments of Ernest Shillaber
Piano Tuner and Teacher
260 Hair St. Harrisburg, Pa.
Bell 2-1010

Words and Music by

M. J. McKiernan

 Introduced by Al Carney
and Pat Barnes

Russ Conlin Publishing Co.
111 West Monroe St.
Chicago
Reminds Me Of You

By M. J. McKiernan

Moderato

Going home one day,
Happy for a while,
Heard a fellow say,

Try to sing and smile,

Sing a song and cares will pass a-Smiling sometimes, drives away re-

Copyright MCMXXVI by M. J. McKiernan
International Copyright Secured
All Rights Reserved way,      But now when I way,      But since we said good-sing, the melody brings,

bye, I'm wondering why,

memories of our parting day,
Wishing why we ever met.

CHORUS

Everything I do, reminds me of you, I try not to think of you.

When I'm all alone, my thoughts seem to roam, And then I'm lone some and blue.

The birds, the trees and peaceful summer skies, Reminds me of love that once shone from your eyes, It's hard to sing when everything Reminds me of you.
My Garden Of Just One Rose

By JACK SHERIDAN &
M. J. McKiERNAN
(G. M. C.)

CHORUS

I have a garden of just one

rose Each day,

I wander where my flower grows

WATCH FOR OUR SONGS--
Russ Conlin                M. J. McKiernan
RUSS CONLIN PUBLISHING CO.,
111 West Monroe St.,    ---    Chicago, Ill.