"Safe," In Mother's Arms

By CHAS. K. HARRIS

Moderato Andante

Far away from home and friends you wander, And When you're "down and out" and hope has left you, And

Vamp Till Ready

mid the throng you're feeling sad and blue, all the time you're moaning o'er your lot,

Even though your heart it may be aching,
Sighing, crying, what's the use of living,

Just remember mother loves you true.
Yet, there's one who never has forgot.

REFRAIN (Not fast)
You can always be sure of a welcome.
Way back home in your mother's arms,
You can always be sure of her blessing, Of her kisses and sweet tender charms, There is always a light in the window, And it's shining for you and for me, Though you're tattered and torn, cold and hungry, You'll be safe in your dear mother's arms.

Valse moderato

Oft-times when I feel A Mother's kiss will sad and blue and all the world seems wrong.

It's
heal your heart as nothing else will do.
When

Mother dear, whose always near to cheer your heart with friends desert and you feel hurt your Mother's love is
