Voice

Don't know what my sweet-ie
Sweet-ie hates the crowded wants,

streets,
'Cause she never tells me what.
Loves the little quiet

Don't know if she cares for me—
Sweet-ie knows an awful lot—
Or if she loves me
You never learn—not.

When I ask her for a kiss,

books.

Never talks about herself,

Never answers "yes" or "no"

Has no faults that I can see

Rolls her eyes, then

Why she loves the

looks at me and sighs,

cloudy skies above,

I'm worried so.

That puzzles me.

Chorus

I meet her in the moonlight, but she keeps me in the dark, I meet her on the corner, but she takes me in the park.

Tho' she's distant I can see,

Never met a blond like her

Says she loves the strong men best

Every night she gets a little closer to me.

She's the kind that gentlemen will never prefer.

Looking for a fellow with a cedar chest. I meet her in the moon-light, but she keeps me in the dark! I dark!
