Moderato

I've got a girl-ic, Out in Ind-i-an-a, One who means the world to me, She's got some horses, lots of cows and chick-ens, And she feeds them ev-ry day-

She's not a "Han-nah" hail-in' from Sa-van-nah, She's as sweet as she can be,
But in the evening how we raise the chickens, When her folks have gone a-way,

Just a coun-try las-sie, And she may not know a lot, Does-n't Matakes Pa a-callin', When she's got the dish-es done, So when dress so very classy, But she's the only girl I've got, shades of night are fall in, My girl and I start having fun.

CHORUS
She's a corn-fed Indian girl, But she's mama to me;
She was born, bred, raised among the hicks, But she's my bride-to-be.
Some folks say she hasn't any style, But her way has always made me smile, She's so bashful, She loves nature, she's so shy, Hides ev'ry Tuesday when the train goes by, Likes her corn-bread all a-bout, Guess that's the reason why she swims without Likes her corn-bread

Indian style, When it's done to a "T," Paints her barn red,

Indian style, When it's done to a "T," Paints her barn red,

Indian style, So it won't be hard to see, She's no She-ba,
Indian style, So it won't be hard to see, She wears ribbons,

I'm no Sheik, But she went and bought a sofa 'cause the davenport's weak, She's a on her hair, But there's quite a bit of mama showin' here and there, She's a corn-fed Indian girl, But she's mama to me. She's a me.
