SPIRIT OF THE AIR CORPS
(from the Paramount Picture "I WANTED WINGS")

Marcia con spirito

In to the air, Army Air Corps!  Give 'er the hands on the throttle as we all gun, pilots true!  In to the air, wait for the nod; and we will meet

Army Air Corps!  Hold her nose up in the them half way, men.  We will drive 'em to the blue.

sod.

When you hear our motors sing in,

Then, when our last flight is over, and our steel props start to whine, and we meet our flying boss, you can bet the

Army Air Corps

is clear, men, from Oregon to the line.

We have our cross.
