birds unto their mates are softly calling, And fondly dream'd that I would be the lover, Who'd all the world seems peacefully to rest, 'Tis share life's joy and sorrow by your side. But then I miss you most, as I sit all alone; I since you chose to part, there's nothing seems worth while, 'Tis hear your voice on every wind that blows. Tho' only pride that makes my life seem gay, And miss you more than words can ever say.

REFRAIN. Slowly with expression.

No one knows how much I miss you, No one knows how my heart grieves, How my lips have yearned to kiss you, You in whom—my soul believes. No one knows how much I love you, More and more as each day goes, Tho' my heart may break in sorrow, No one cares for no one knows.

To the End of the World With You
