Moderato espress.

'Tis twilight and the toil of day is over,
Out in the golden West to-night I'm dreaming,

The cattle from the fields are coming home,
The moon shines o'er the mountains still and cold,

Chorus.

Neath the old acorn tree, sweet Estelle, I'll return, love's old story to tell, When the gold of the day turns to gray,

And you list to the old village bell,
Let my love in your heart ever dwell,
You may know little girl all is well,
With a heart ever true, I'll return dear to you,

Intermezzo Two-Step.

Mabel McKinley's big song hit is adapted from this beautiful little number.

If you will only play and sing this refrain through three or four times, you will then understand why it is such a popular favorite.

The melody, the words, the theme, so natural and true to life.
