"Stop Yer Tickling, Jock!"

Words by
HARRY LAUDER & FRANK FOLLOY

Music by HARRY LAUDER

Moderato

Oh! I'm courting a farmer's daughter, She's
Oh! she went to the seaside with me,
I
Oh! I went to the farm, one Sunday,
Be-
Oh! I'm thinking of getting married,
In

one of the nicest ever seen. Her checks they are thanked at the sea. Oh! I did enjoy my-cause she invited me to tea. Her fa-that, dear Ken, there'll be no harm. Oh! because I think she's

The Theatrical and Vaudeville Slighting Rights of this Song are reserved
Copyright MCMLII by Francis Day & Hunter
International Copyright Secured

Francis, Day & Hunter, 142 Charing Cross Road, W.C.
NEW YORK, 1364 Broadway.
Rosy red, And her age is just seventeen.
self that day, And, I can tell you, so did she.
mither went To the kirk, which was a' richt for me.
just the sort Of a lass to keep me nice and warm.

When I throw my arms around her neck
And on the railway train, as we went thro' The What a lovely, lovely feed we had, Of I think she has a lot o' brass, But try to steal a kiss, Oh! she'll wriggle and giggle and tunnels in the dark, Oh! every time I ham and eggs and bun! Oh! and after that, we that I'll find out soon; If she has, then we'll go twist and twig-gle, And then you'll hear her shout-ing this:

winked at her, The pas-sen-gers heard her re-mark:
had some treat-ele Ro-ly po-ly, just for fun.
rid-ing on The Sub-way Line for the hon-ey-moon.

CHORUS
Will you stop yer tick-ling, Jock? Oh, stop yer tick-ling, Jock! Din-na mak' me laugh so heart-y, Or you'll make me choke. Oh, I wish you'd stop yer nonsense—just look at all the folk. Will you stop yer tickling, tickle, ickle, ickle-ing, stop yer tickling, Jock? Will you Jock?
Try these on your Piano.

HARRY LAUDER'S
most Popular Songs.

I love a lassie.

Stop yer tickling, Jock.

Copyright 1916 by Francis, Day & Hunter.
International Copyright Secured.